Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Martin, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, have sent a George III set of silver to the bride. and Mrs. Davies are spending the honeymoon at Mr. Davies's parents' place, in Purgatory Road,

Another wedding on Thursday which attracted much attention was that of Miss Constance Clementine Coudert, the fifth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coudert, to William R. Garrison, grandson of the late Commodore Garrison, which took place also in the afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, No. 36 West Forty-eighth-st. The bride's sown was of white satin, and the veil of point lace, fastened with a diamond tiara, a present from the bridegroom. The three bridesmalds were dresses of Nile-green satin, trimmed at the bodice with an of Mie-green sath, frimmed at the Each carried a applique of gold spangled net. Each carried a bouquet of shaded heliotrope orchids. For the next six months Mr. and Mrs. Garrison will occupy the cottage of James Brown Potter, in Tuxedo Park. The bride received many gorgeous presents, including a complete dinner service of silver, from Mrs. C. Maule Ramsey, of England, a sister of the bridegroom, and a tea and coffee service of silver from his mother.

The other weedlings of the week which were important from a social point of view were those of Miss Marie Adele Bonner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Bonner, to William Nicholas Beach, in St. Bartholomew's Church; Miss Clara Legg. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Logg, to Henry W. J. Bucknell, in the Church of the Divine Paternity; Mrs. Annette Wetmore to Dr. James M. Markoe, and Miss Harriette Louise Barry to R. Dorsey Loraine Mohun, of Washington. The last two were quietly celebrated in St. George's Church, on Thursday afternoon.

The wedding of Miss Sadie Brookman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Brookman, to Philip Bradford Niles, of this city, on Wednesday, in Grace Church, Columbia Heights, Brooklyn, though taking place in the city across the Bridge, was of equal interest to New-York society, so well known is Mr. Niles in Brooklyn and New-York. The wedding arrangements were beautiful, especially the decorations of the church, which is one of the handsomest in the city. There was a choral service, with organ and 'cello accompaniment, and everywhere that it was possible roses and chrysmums were used in profusion, garlands being placed along the railings of the pews, around the tall gas torches and the supporting columns of the church. The friends of the young couple from this city went over in great numbers, and the leading members of Brooklyn society were at the church and the reception which followed at the of the bride's parents, No. 118 Remsen-st.

On Tuesday of this week Mrs. Anna Wiederer, a daughter of the late George Bechtel, of Staten Island, will be married at the Hotel Waldorf to Conrad Uhl. At Delmonico's, on the same day, Miss Blanche Steinberger, the eldest daughter of Jacques Steinberger, of East Sixty-first-st., will be married C. Minzesheimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Minzesheimer. The wedding of Missa Blanche Edelen Verdenal to Lee C. The ceremony will take place at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hoyt, No. 3 West Pifty-sixth-st., and only relatives and a small to witness it. There will be no bridesmaids, maid of honor or best man. The ushers will be Dr. C. L. Gibson and Dr. James Pedersen. The reception which is to follow the marriage ceremony will be comparatively small.

The engagement announced early in the week of Miss Anne Leavenworth Cameron, the second daughter of Sir Roderick Cameron, to Belmont Tiffany was by no means a surprise to their friends. The report that the young people were engaged was heard nearly two months ago, but the formal announcement of the engagement was not made by Miss Cameron's family until last week Miss Cameron has been a great favorite in society. Mr. Tiffany, whose father, the late George Tiffany, married a daughter of Commodore Perry, is a brother of Perry Tiffany, whose wife is a daughter of Theodore A. Havemeyer and a cousin of August Perry and Oliver H. P. Belmont. His mother has lived in Europe for some years. The engagement is announced of Miss Cornelia Evelyn Paulimier, a sister of Mrs. Robert W. Stuart. His mother has lived in Europe for some years. The marriage of Mrs. Ida S. Knowles, daughter of the late Captain J. T. Stockdale, of Pittsburg, to Miles A. Staffort, of this city, will take place on December 19 at the home of the bride, No. 48 West End-ave. The caremony will be quietly performed, and only the nearest relatives are to be present. Mrs. Knowles, who has lived in New-York for three or four years, was prominent in social circles in Pittsburg. A trip South, a reception to friends, and later an extended trip abroad are part of the post-nuprial programme.

The members of the Taxedo Chio, through William Kent, the secretary, have received a circular informing them that on and after November 28 the baliroom in the clubhouse will be used for bicycling and that a covering for the floor has been ordered and will be in place by that date. The circular shape of the room makes it especially adaptable for shape of the room makes it especially adaptable for bleycling purposes. Mr. Kent also announces that preparations have been made to turn the meadow in the rear of the clubhouse near the tennis court into a skating park. Henry Mallory, of the Mallory Line, said vesterday that the Lampassas carried eight passengers and a full cargo, including 4,790 bales of cotion and several bales of wool. The cotion is said in he worth $30 a bale, which would make that part of her freight worth $10,990.

Mr Mallory said that he expected the Lampassas to arrive here in a day or so in such a condition that she will be able to continue service at short hottee. It is not known whether she was damaged by being run ashore to save her from sinking, but from all that her agents have been able to but from all that her agents have been able to be true and the source. Mr. Mallory had no theory to advance has to the cause of the fire. I do not think it was the work of an incendiarty, he said. The was jest the same, I believe, as the fire on the Alamo, andoubtedly an accident. The passengers were all taken to Philadelphia by a tog and came to this city by rail.

THE FALL OF PORT ARTHUR. JAPAN MAY DEMAND HER OWN TERMS.

If Port Arthur has fallen into the hands of the Japanese, the occupation of Peking is certain. The way lies open no defences exist worth considering, revolt has broken out toward Mongolia, the only region from which the Chinese Government can draw troops, and peace will be made on any terms which Japan dictates. From The Philadelphia Press.

PERHAPS THEY HAD BETTER QUIT NOW. From The Brooklyn Standard Union. From The Brooklyn Standard Union.

The news from Port Arthur seems to signify that the Japanese may be teaching the Chinese how to fight. The Johns have not behaved like cowards when they had a chance. They were badly handled at sea, but they stood up to their work. They did not run away at Port Arthur. Perhaps the Japs had better take Formosa, and $200,000,000 in silver, hony it from us with British gold furnished by China, and quit.

THEY HAD NO CHANCE TO RUN.
